CAN YOU EVER FORGIVE ME?

Lee Israel (Melissa McCarthy), a biographer, has fallen on hard times - largely of her own making. What money she has is spent on alcohol and her cat, Jersey's medical needs. After selling a cherished personal memento of a hand written letter from Katharine Hepburn to raise money, Lee discovers that there is a market for such celebrity memorabilia. She ends up befriending a gay past acquaintance from her literary circle, Jack Hock (Richard E Grant), who has also fallen on hard times and becomes not only her drinking buddy, but her partner in crime.
